55. THE PATH TO PROMINENCE

With roots reaching back to 1743, we are a community of 16,000 undergraduates, 3,500 graduate students, 1,200 faculty, and 135,000 alumni who excel in diverse fields and hail from all corners of the globe. Although we are a diverse community, we embrace common goals and values that are reflected in the questions below. Respond to the one that resonates most deeply with you. Please include your name and UD ID number at the top of your essay.

A. We are an engaged academic community.

While a University of Delaware education ensures that intellectual curiosity and a passion for learning become habits of the mind, our long tradition of public service also produces graduates who have a positive impact on their communities. Have you discovered your passion for a particular subject or a cause? Tell us about it.

B. We are a diverse and global community.

Our students come from all parts of the globe and reflect many different cultural and religious heritages. How has your own heritage shaped you? What would other students learn from you, and what do you look forward to learning from them?

C. We are a community respectful of the environment.

The University of Delaware leads the way in developing technological, social, political, and cultural solutions to the challenges facing our planet today and in the future. In what ways are you a steward of the environment? How will you assist the University in finding solutions to significant environmental issues?

56. Self-Appraisal: Your Academic Performance

With Delaware's increasing selectivity, grades of "B" and above are expected. If your academic record, as measured by your grades, course selections, and test scores, is not an accurate reflection of your abilities, then we invite you to attach a self-appraisal that tells us why. We are especially interested in knowing whether there were personal or family circumstances that negatively affected your academic performance. The Admissions Committee expects that you will take advantage of this question to explain any grade on your transcript that is a "C" or below, or varies significantly from your usual performance.

Honors students are especially inclined to be interdisciplinary, creative, or entrepreneurial. What academic interest or combination of interests will you explore as a member of the Honors community? Where will your Delaware experiences and degree take you? Please include your name and UD ID number at the top of your essay.
